

Custom eLearning Development

Let our team handle all the moving parts on your eLearning project

Scalable Process

Your eLearning development needs fluctuate throughout the year making staffing your team nearly impossible.

TrainingPros' Custom eLearning Team is scalable to handle highs and lows.

Dedicated Project Manager

You work with one person - our Project Manager. You don't have to vet and manage developers, artists, animators, and narrators. Your Project Manager handles all the team management and works with you to manage the scope, timeline, and budget.

Award Winning Team

You're not just looking for a library of courses - you want attractive, consistent, and interactive courses to represent you. TrainingPros' Custom eLearning team has won industry awards.

It's easy to get started

- 1 Schedule a consultation Let us show you our project management methodology and our sample courses.
- 2 Select your pricing Our pricing model lets you choose your services and know the cost up front.
- 3 Build eLearning with ease Our team will do the heavy lifting for you. You take the credit.
